- 8.5. For PSPs, a fixed one-time Fee per Merchant boarded with PPRO is charged to the Contractual Partner. The Fee becomes due when such Merchant has been successfully boarded with PPRO. The Fee is due only once per Merchant irrespective of the number of Payment Methods it selects to offer to its Customers. For the avoidance of doubt, if such Merchant selects to offer additional Payment Methods at any time following its initial set-up, PPRO will not charge any additional Merchant set-up Fees.

Other Fees and Services

- 8.6. Unless stated otherwise, the prices/Fees stipulated in the Agreement apply per submitted Transaction or described action.

Simultaneously upon signature of the Agreement, the Contractual Partner shall execute and deliver PPRO the applicable direct debit mandate before the Commencement Date.

PPRO Fees

- 9.4. Should the aggregate funds not be sufficient to cover the Fees or other amounts owed to PPRO by the Contractual Partner under this Agreement, PPRO UK will invoice the Contractual Partner in respect of the Fees owed under the Agreement, including any applicable taxes or other levies. In the case of electronic invoices, the invoice shall be deemed to have been received by the Contractual Partner on the day that PPRO UK issued it, and in the case of non-electronic invoices, the invoice shall be deemed to have been received by the Contractual Partner on the third day following the date of its dispatch by regular mail, unless the Contractual Partner provides proof that it did not receive the invoice or received it at a later date. Fourteen (14) days after the receipt of the relevant invoice the Contractual Partner shall become duly liable to make payment. As necessary for tax purposes, the above-mentioned invoice may be issued by PPRO UK's tax branch in Germany.
- 9.5. PPRO reserves the right to adjust its Fees or impose additional fees on the Contractual Partner, with not less than 1 (one) month's prior written notice, when, for example, a Payment Scheme increases its fees charged to PPRO for a Payment Method and/or PPRO's costs to make the Products and Services available to the Contractual Partner change such as where there are changes to the fees imposed on PPRO by its banking partners.

Local Payment Method (LPM) Fees and Chargebacks

- 9.6. In the event of any fraud, suspected fraud, chargebacks, fees, fines, penalties, or any other amounts imposed by the LPM (whether directly on PPRO or the Contractual Partner) in relation to the use of the Payment Processing Services by the Contractual Partner or any of its Merchants under this Agreement ("Deductions"):

- 9.6.1 Contractual Partner shall be liable for such Deductions and shall indemnify, defend, and hold PPRO harmless from and against all such Deductions together with any costs, liabilities, losses, expenses, and damages (including, but not limited to, reasonable legal fees and enforcement costs) arising out of or in connection with such Deductions (together "Transaction Losses");
- 9.6.2 PPRO shall be entitled to recover any Transaction Losses from the Contractual Partner as set out in clause 9.7. below.
- 9.7. PPRO shall have the right to recover such Transaction Losses immediately through the application of any available Holdbacks by deducting such amounts from funds otherwise due and payable to the Contractual Partner. To the extent such recovery is not possible or insufficient, PPRO UK may issue an invoice for the outstanding amounts. Such invoice shall be deemed received on the date of issue if sent electronically, or on the third day following dispatch if sent by regular mail (unless the Contractual Partner provides evidence of later receipt), and the invoiced amounts shall be due and payable within seven (7) days after receipt.

Interest

- 9.8. If the Contractual Partner fails to make payment in accordance with this Agreement (either voluntarily or PPRO fails to collect the owed amounts via the SEPA Direct Debit Mandate or equivalent direct debit mechanism), PPRO shall be entitled, in addition to any unpaid amount that should properly have been paid, to charge simple interest on that amount to the Contractual Partner, after sixty (60) days from the final date for payment until the date of actual payment, such interest to be calculated at a rate of 3% per year above the Secured Overnight Financing Rate (SOFR) rate from time to time.

- 10.2. The Contractual Partner shall ensure at all times that Transactions are submitted to PPRO for each Merchant, if applicable, or via the third party enabling the Integration, with the respective Merchant Contract ID provided to the Contractual Partner by PPRO. For the avoidance of doubt, at no time shall collective submissions of the transactions of several Merchants be submitted under a single Merchant Contract ID, unless explicitly and in written form stated by PPRO. In PPRO's sole discretion, and provided it is permitted under applicable Payment Scheme rules, the Contractual Partner may be permitted to onboard and set up multiple Merchants under one Merchant Contract ID.
- 10.3. The Contractual Partner shall receive a Clearing Statement at the end of the Settlement Period.

11. SETTLEMENT

- 11.1. Pursuant to recital (D) above, settlement obligations under the Agreement will be fulfilled by PPRO LU.
- 11.2. PPRO shall only be responsible for the fulfilment of its settlement obligations relating to Transaction Amounts, if all of the following prerequisites are met:

 - 11.2.5 there has been no suspension of service pursuant to the terms of clause 15.
- 11.3. The Settlement Period shall be set out in the Payment Services Agreement. The Contractual Partner acknowledges and agrees that PPRO will only settle funds which it has actually received from the Issuing Bank or the Payment Scheme. The funds settled to the Contractual Partner on a given day will depend on the timeframes of settlement provided by the Payment Schemes to PPRO.
- 11.4. PPRO shall collect and aggregate all funds deriving from Payment Schemes and/or Issuing Banks referable to each individual Merchant, if applicable, on the basis of the Merchant Contract ID. PPRO shall hold and/or process funds in accordance with Regulatory Requirements.

- 11.5. Subject to the Minimum Settlement Amount being achieved, PPRO shall remit funds due to the Contractual Partner within two (2) TARGET2 Bank Days following the day that PPRO delivers the corresponding Clearing Statement to the Contractual Partner. The amount of the funds remitted to the Contractual Partner shall be equal to the amount of funds as stated in the corresponding Clearing Statement which may include outstanding Fees deducted by PPRO in accordance with the Agreement or Holdbacks deducted in accordance with clause 12.1, if applicable.
- 11.6. The Contractual Partner shall examine the Clearing Statements issued to it and promptly notify PPRO in writing of anything which it regards as an error or irregularity to which it proposes to object. In any event, no later than eight (8) weeks following receipt of the respective Clearing Statement, if no objection has been received, the Clearing Statement shall be deemed free of error and irregularity and duly approved. If an objection has been received the Clearing Statement shall be deemed approved with regard to such parts of it to which no objection is made.

12. HOLDBACKS AND RESERVES

- 12.1. PPRO shall be entitled, in its reasonable discretion, to either (i) retain a reasonable Holdback from the settlement of funds remitted to the Contractual Partner; or (ii) require Contractual Partner to maintain maintain a separate reserve (a "Reserve"), or (iii) require Contractual Partner to provide additional financial security as set out in clause 12.2., for certain Payment Methods that carry certain risks of Chargeback and other fraud-related disputes, Refund (including Over-Refund) or to cover any other potential liability of the Contractual Partner towards PPRO or any third party, including the Customer (as well as the risks described in this clause) . The amount of any Holdback and/or Reserve will be notified to the Contractual Partner in advance together with a clear justification and shown on the Clearing Statement. PPRO shall be entitled in its discretion (which PPRO shall exercise reasonably and in good faith) to adjust the Holdback or Reserve at any time, notice of which shall be provided to the Contractual Partner. The applicable Holdback and/or Reserve for each Payment Method shall be agreed in writing between the Parties.

PPRO may take into account, amongst other matters, of the following risks and factors when determining whether to retain a Holdback and/or Reserve and the amount of such Holdback or Reserve:

- 12.1.1 the average Chargeback, Refund (including Over-Refund) ratio of a Payment Method and the ratio actually accrued by the Contractual Partner on an ongoing basis or the overall risk thereof;
- 12.1.2 the Contractual Partner ceasing or threatening to cease its business or a substantial part thereof;
- 12.1.3 the Contractual Partner materially altering, or threatening to materially alter, the

 - 12.1.5 the overall financial standing of the Contractual Partner;
 - 12.1.6 the Contractual Partner becoming insolvent or otherwise being unable to pay its debts as they fall due, or it reasonably appearing to PPRO that such circumstances are genuinely in prospect;
 - 12.1.7 PPRO having a reasonable belief that the Contractual Partner will be unable or unwilling in a material respect to perform its obligations under the Agreement;
 - 12.1.8 PPRO receiving an inordinate and unusual number of enquiries from Payment Schemes or police or regulatory authorities relating to the business activities of the Contractual Partner in connection with actual or suspected fraud or financial crime; and
 - 12.1.9 there being a risk related to the prefunding considering late settlement of the Payment Schemes, or for longer than expected periods of non working days (whether Target2 Bank Day or not).
- 12.2. In cases governed by clause 12.1.1., 12.1.4. and 12.1.5., and/or if PPRO determines that the Contracting Party or its Merchant's operate in a high-risk industry, country or region, PPRO shall be entitled to request some form of financial security prior to the conclusion of the Agreement, for instance, in the form of a bank guarantee or cash collateral. For the avoidance of doubt, such financial security must be provided from the Contractual Partner's own funds.
- 12.3. PPRO may require the Contractual Partner to maintain a cash deposit in an amount determined by PPRO to ensure that funds held by PPRO do not fall below the negative balance limit assigned to the Contractual Partner ("Net Negative Balance"). The Contractual Partner shall promptly inform PPRO without undue delay if it expects Refund or Chargeback volumes for any currency to exceed the normal processing volume.
- 12.4. PPRO may immediately suspend Settlement to the Contractual Partner if (i) the Net Negative Balance is insufficient for a period of time as determined by PPRO; and/or (ii) the Contractual Partner does not replenish cash deposit required without undue delay, following a request from PPRO.
- 12.5. Where a Merchant has been introduced to PPRO by an introducer PSP and that Merchant enters into this Agreement with PPRO, PPRO may, at any time and without prejudice to any other rights or remedies, set off any amounts owed to PPRO by the introducer PSP in connection with that Merchant against any settlement amounts or other sums payable by PPRO in respect of that same Merchant under this Agreement.

- 14.1. The Contractual Partner shall ensure that it implements appropriate policies, procedures and technical solutions to prevent unauthorised access to Confidential Information and to ensure that transaction flows are secured with end-to-end encryption in accordance with industry standards.
- 14.2. In the event that the Contractual Partner and/or a Merchant discovers that a third party has attained knowledge of Customer identification and authenticating data, or misuse is suspected, the Contractual Partner shall immediately inform PPRO and, where possible, PPRO may disable access by the Contractual Partner or the Merchant, as applicable, to the Products and Services until the matter is resolved.
- 14.3. The Contractual Partner will ensure that all access data, passwords or certificates are stored securely and protected against access from unauthorised parties and that all Customer and Transaction data transferred by the Contractual Partner will be made in a secure manner. Should any actual or potential breach in data security occur (including situations where the Contractual Partner reasonably suspects a data breach or unauthorised third Party access to its systems), the Contractual Partner must inform PPRO immediately.
- 14.4. The Contractual Partner shall comply with PPRO's reasonable directions with regard to the testing of the Integration between the Contractual Partner's systems and PPRO's systems. In case the Integration is through a third party, the Contractual Partner shall comply with PPRO's reasonable directions as necessary for PPRO to undertake a validation of the Contractual Partner's integration to PPRO's Payment Gateway.

- 14.5. The Contractual Partner undertakes to notify PPRO immediately regarding any malfunctions of PPRO Payment Gateway of which it becomes aware of during the Term.
- 14.6. The Contractual Partner hereby grants its express consent to PPRO disclosing data related to the processing of Transactions under the Agreement, including Merchant related data, to a Payment Scheme, an Issuing Bank or other participating bank, a Regulator, PPRO's banking partners or foreign authorities (including, but not limited to, law enforcement authorities) provided PPRO does so at all times in accordance with the Applicable Law (collectively the "Recipients"). The Contractual Partner understands and agrees that the Recipients may disclose data related to the Transactions, including Merchant related data, to third parties.
- 14.7. If the Contractual Partner believes that a payment instruction that it may have issued to PPRO was unauthorised or incorrectly executed, it must inform PPRO without undue delay, and in any event no later than 4 weeks following the date of execution of the payment. Notification must be made via email to riskmanagement@ppro.com. Subject to requirements of Applicable Law, the time period specified in this clause 14.7 shall be the maximum time period for reporting unauthorised or incorrectly executed payment transactions.
- 14.8. If the Contractual Partner's access details to the online interface to its payment account linked to the Payment Processing Service have been lost, stolen or misappropriated, or the Contractual Partner suspects that unauthorized use of its payment account has taken place or may take place, the Contractual Partner must inform PPRO immediately and shall make such notification by email to this email address: finance@ppro.com.
- 14.9. PPRO is entitled to forward all relevant information collected from the Contractual Partner or its Merchants to clearing centres, acquirers, Payment Schemes, authorised banking partners, credit agencies and any subcontractors as required to provide the Products and Services.

PPRO acknowledges that should it undertake to process Cardholder Data (as the term "cardholder data" is defined in accordance with PCI DSS) PPRO shall remain responsible for the security of cardholder data that PPRO possesses or otherwise stores, processes or transmits on behalf of the Contractual Partner or to the extent that it could impact the security of the Contractual Partner's cardholder data environment.

15. SUSPENSION AND BLOCKAGE OF SERVICE

- 15.1. PPRO has the right to block access to particular Payment Schemes or suspend the Contractual Partner's use of Products and Services, should the Contractual Partner infringe any material contractual obligation imposed on it. In case of a PSP, should such infringement relate only to the actions of a particular Merchant, PPRO's right to block or suspend is solely in relation to such infringing Merchant, unless otherwise required by Applicable Law or a particular Payment Scheme.

However, should there be a significant number of Merchant suspensions pursuant to the above, PPRO may block or suspend the PSP. Furthermore, in the event of an extra ordinary event, such as widespread sanctions targeting a particular country, industry and/or individuals, PPRO shall have the discretion to suspend, block or terminate the Agreement or a particular Merchant, with reasonable notice, even if the PSP or Merchant is not directly targeted by such measures, to protect its reputation, goodwill, license or otherwise.

- 15.2. Should a blockage or suspension be initiated, PPRO shall be entitled, in the first instance, to withhold remittance of funds otherwise due under clause 11.5. PPRO will notify the Contractual Partner in such an event, unless to do so would be contrary to Regulatory Requirements or jeopardise any investigation of fraud.
- 15.3. PPRO may suspend or block Contractual Partner's or any of its Merchant's access and use of a Payment Method, and any associated account, should it reasonably suspect unauthorised or fraudulent use of the same, or for reasons related to the security of the payment account.
- 15.4. PPRO reserves the right, in its discretion, to suspend or terminate services if, in its sole discretion, it determines that the Contractual Partner has failed to take adequate fraud prevention measures or has not met its obligations under this clause.

16. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS

- 16.1. Throughout the Term each party agrees that it will:
 - 16.1.1 perform its obligations under the Agreement in compliance with all Applicable Laws and be solely responsible for complying with, monitoring and interpreting all such Applicable Laws;

- 16.2. Either party will inform the other upon receipt of any enquiry regarding the performance of the Agreement from any governmental or regulatory authority (including the CSSF and FCA), where it is lawfully able to do so, and will cooperate with the other party, where so requested, in providing information or records in connection with examinations, requests or proceedings from any governmental or regulatory authority.
- 16.3. Each party represents that it, and each of its owners, directors, employees, and every other Person working on its behalf has not and will not, in connection with the subject matter of the Agreement make any improper payment or transfer or improperly transfer anything of value, directly or indirectly to:

- 16.3.1 any governmental official or employee (including employees of a government corporation or public international organisation);
 - 16.3.2 any political party, official of a political party, or candidate for public office;
 - 16.3.3 an intermediary for payment to any of the foregoing; or
 - 16.3.4 any other Person if such payment or transfer would violate the laws of the country in which it is made or the laws of the United Kingdom or Luxembourg.
- 16.4. Each Party shall comply with applicable bribery laws including ensuring that it has in place adequate procedures to prevent bribery or other improper payment and use all reasonable endeavours to ensure that:
- 16.4.1 all of that party's personnel;
 - 16.4.2 all others associated with that party; and
 - 16.4.3 all of that party's subcontractors;
 - 16.4.4 involved in performing services for or on behalf of that party or with the Agreement so comply.
- 16.5. In the event that a party should reasonably suspect, in good faith, that the other party or a member of its Group is carrying out money laundering, terrorist financing, bribery, fraud or any other financial crime, then that party will be entitled to suspend the performance of its obligations under the Agreement without notification and without stating any reasons.
- 16.6. Each party will notify the other in writing if it considers that a change in Applicable Law is likely to require a change to the Agreement (including the scope of the Payment Processing Services, the technical services and the Service Levels). Following such notice PPRO shall have the right to amend the Agreement (in consultation with the Contractual Partner) to the extent strictly necessary to ensure continued compliance with Applicable Law. The Contractual Partner shall agree to such amendment or have the right to terminate the Agreement if the Contractual Partner reasonably considers that such amendment will adversely affect its commercial position to a material extent under the Agreement.

17. INDEMNIFICATION AND LIABILITY

- 17.1. Each representation, warranty, covenant and agreement made by PPRO UK or PPRO LU, as applicable, under this Agreement shall be deemed to be jointly made by both entities. All liabilities and obligations arising from such representations, warranties, covenants and agreements shall be the joint and several responsibility of PPRO UK and PPRO LU.

17.2. The parties undertake that (i) neither shall use the Products and Services provided for under the Agreement for the purposes of money laundering, terrorist financing, fraud or any other financial crime; and (ii) no funds which are being transferred by them constitute the proceeds of any criminal activity.

Exercise of this right of set-off will not prevent PPRO from using any other rights or remedies available to it under the Agreement or otherwise.

18. ASSIGNMENT & PERFORMANCE

- 18.1. The Contractual Partner may not, without the prior written consent of PPRO (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed), assign, novate, sell, pledge, mortgage, license or dispose of it, part with any interest in the Agreement or grant any sub-licence or delegate any of the rights conferred by it.

- 18.2. PPRO may assign, novate or subcontract any part of the services under the Agreement (a) to a PPRO Affiliate without obtaining any further consent from the Contractual Partner or (b) to any third party that is not a PPRO Affiliate upon the prior written consent of the Contractual Partner, such consent to not be unreasonably withheld. - 18.5. PPRO shall be contractually responsible for the proper performance of the Payment Processing Services under the Agreement irrespective of the subcontracting. For the avoidance of doubt, this means that, under the Agreement, PPRO shall be wholly liable for the acts and omissions of the PPRO Affiliates during their provision of Payment Processing Services.
- 18.6. Subject to and upon any succession or assignment permitted by the Agreement, any successor or assignee of the Contractual Parties will in its own right be able to enforce any term in accordance with the terms of the Agreement as if it were a party.

Such right of use shall be limited to the duration of the Agreement. The Contractual Partner shall not be entitled to modify, translate, reverse-engineer, transform or otherwise adapt the software. - 20.5. Both parties acknowledge and agree that there is no intent, nor contemplated under the Agreement to create any jointly developed Intellectual Property Rights. In the event that jointly developed Intellectual Property Rights are inadvertently created, the Parties shall discuss in good faith the ownership and exploitation of any jointly developed Intellectual Property Rights developed by the parties as a result of the operation of the Agreement. Each party shall promptly notify the other party of such jointly developed Intellectual Property Rights following the creation and shall negotiate for a period of 60 days following such notification. If the parties are unable to agree the ownership and exploitation of such jointly developed Intellectual Property Rights within the foregoing 60-day period, the parties shall manage the dispute in accordance with the dispute resolution process, as set out in clause 23.

20.6. Should claims be asserted against the Contractual Partner due to the infringement of trademark rights based on the use of the Trademarks within the agreed scope of use or due to the infringement of other related intellectual property rights, the Contractual Partner shall notify PPRO immediately in writing. To the extent possible and reasonable, and upon express request by PPRO, the Contractual Partner shall leave the defence against such claims to PPRO. The Contractual Partner will provide appropriate support to PPRO in this process.

21. INTENTIONALLY OMITTED

22.1.1 PPRO will provide to the Contractual Partner only such information regarding any payment transactions under the payment service as required under the Agreement;

22.1.2 PPRO's obligations to the Contractual Partner related to any payment transactions under the payment service will be only the obligations set out in the Agreement; and

23. FINAL PROVISIONS

23.1. Neither party will have any right, power or authority to enter into any agreement for or on behalf of, or to assume or incur any obligation or liabilities, express or implied, on behalf of or in the name of, the other party or any Payment Scheme. Accordingly, each party will ensure that none of their personnel sign any documents on behalf of the other party. The Agreement will not be interpreted or construed to create an association, joint venture or partnership between the parties or to impose any partnership obligation or liability upon either party. The performance of each party's own marketing activities shall be solely incumbent on each party. Any joint marketing activities shall require a separate agreement between the parties.

- 23.2. This Agreement, and any disputes or claims (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with it, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales. The courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any such disputes or claims.
- 23.3. Notwithstanding clause 23.2, the parties shall seek to resolve any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Agreement (including non-contractual disputes) in good faith through the following process:
- 23.3.1 The issue shall be referred, by either party, to the relationship managers of each party for resolution (unless otherwise agreed the relationship managers shall be those individuals responsible for the day-to-day management of the relationship). Such referral shall be in writing and may be via email (Dispute Notice);

 - 23.3.4 If, within 7 (seven) days from the referral as set out in clause 23.3, the parties have failed to agree on a resolution either party may commence court proceedings in respect of such unresolved dispute or issue in accordance with clause 23.2.
 - 23.3.5 Nothing in this clause 23.3 shall prevent:
 - a) either party from instigating legal proceedings where an order for urgent injunctive relief is required;
 - b) PPRO initiating court proceedings immediately in respect of any amounts invoiced under this Agreement which remain unpaid following their due date; or
 - c) either party from seeking urgent injunctive relief. Each party shall continue to perform its obligations under the Agreement during the dispute resolution process, except where PPRO is exercising its right to suspend performance for non-payment or as otherwise permitted or required under the Agreement.

- 23.4. If any court finds that any provision of the Agreement (or part of any provision) is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision or part-provision will, to the extent required, be deemed to be deleted, and the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions of the Agreement will not be affected.
- 23.5. The Agreement is made for the benefit of the parties, including any PPRO Affiliate providing Payment Processing Services or part of the Payment Processing Services as detailed in the Payment Services Agreement and any Affiliate of the Contractual Partner who has joined the agreement as provided for by clause 1.8. Save for the aforesaid, the Agreement is not intended to benefit any third party or be enforceable by any third party.
- 23.6. Any notice given to a party under or in connection with the Agreement shall be in the English language, in writing, and shall be delivered by post and/or by email at the addresses for service of notices set out below. Invoices, if electronic invoices, shall be communicated only by email.
- 23.7. Failure by one of the parties to exercise or enforce any rights available to it shall not amount to a waiver of that right.
- 23.8. The Agreement and any documents referred to in the Agreement constitute the whole agreement between the parties and supersede all previous negotiations or agreements between them relating to its subject matter. Each party acknowledges that, in entering into the Agreement and the documents referred to in the Agreement, it has not relied on, and shall have no right or remedy in respect of, any statement, representation, assurance or warranty (whether made negligently or innocently) other than as expressly set out in the Agreement or the documents referred to in the Agreement.

24. MODIFICATIONS

- 24.1. PPRO reserves the right to unilaterally amend the following from time to time, notification of which will be provided to the Contractual Partner via email:

(each individually a “Change”)

24.2. Contractual Partners will be notified of any such Changes per email and the Change will be effective and binding as of the date on which the email notice is distributed.

24.3. If a Change is made pursuant to 24.1.3 or 24.1.4 (i) would have a detrimental impact on the quality of the services provided to the Contractual Partner by PPRO or (ii) the Contractual Partner is likely to suffer significant economic loss as a result of the Change the Contractual Partner will have the right to terminate its access and use of the specific Payment Method. Notice of termination must be provided to PPRO within 45 calendar days of the Change. If the Contractual Partner does not exercise its right of termination within 45 calendar days of the Change, the right will be extinguished. 25. FORCE MAJEURE

25.1. No party will be liable to the other for failure or delay in performance of any obligation under the Agreement if such failure or delay is caused by an Event of Force Majeure provided that the party which is the subject of an Event of Force Majeure (the “Claiming Party”):

caused or contributed to by third parties and liaising with them;

- 25.1.3 on becoming aware of the Event of Force Majeure promptly informs the other Party (the “Non-Claiming Party”) in writing of the Event of Force Majeure, giving details of the Event of Force Majeure and which obligations of the Claiming Party have been affected, together with a reasonable estimate of the period during which the Event of Force Majeure will continue;

 - 25.1.5 notifies the Non-Claiming Party when the Event of Force Majeure has stopped.
- 25.2. If the Event of Force Majeure in question prevails for a continuous period in excess of two (2) months after the date on which the Event of Force Majeure began, the Non-Claiming Party is then entitled to give notice to the Claiming Party to terminate the Agreement. The notice to terminate must specify the termination date, which must not surpass thirty (30) days after the date on which the notice to terminate is given. Once a notice to terminate has been validly given, the Agreement will terminate on the termination date set out in the notice.
